Volunteering Expression of Interest

Hamilton Davies Trust knows what a difference volunteering in your local community can make and how it can enhance lives and make the local area an even better place in which people want to live, work and enjoy.

Volunteering can be flexible. It can be a one off commitment for a specific period of time or recurring. The time commitment can be small or large.

- Do you want to make a real and lasting difference in your local area?
- Do you have some time each month to spare?
- Do you have a skill to offer, or just enthusiasm and drive?

YES? Then please read on.....

Irlam, Cadishead and Rixton-with-Glazebrook appreciate people like you, who want to give time and support to help others in the community. With willing, able and enthusiastic volunteers, we believe we can deliver and increase the support we provide to the local community.

What's in it for you? Volunteering can have lots of benefits including:

- Give and share something which will benefit the community
- Help to increase confidence
- Develop new knowledge, skills or work experience to add to your CV
- Make new friends and contacts
- Positive feelings that can come from working as a part of a team

Interested? Then please complete this form and return it to us.
